Troop 1656 earns high honor from Boy Scouts

So all week most everyone I know has woken up stuffy and with watery eyes due to this lovely, astronomically high pollen count.

Our official first day of spring has come and gone and you'd think by now we'd be seeing more sun and warmer temperatures... but despite the lack of warming, the trees are blossoming anyway and causing back and winning awards.

Eight Scouts from local Boy Scout Troop 1656 were recently awarded the troops prestigious Ben Carter Jr. award.

The award is presented annually to scouts in the troop that have exhibited a love of scouting, demonstration of scout spirit and willingness to mentor younger scouts and adherence to scout principles, as the late Ben Carter Jr. embodied during his life.

The Scouts honored are Chase Adams, Clayton Coyle, William Games III, Robert Garza, Taran Garza, Kyle Meserole, Zachery Obmaces and Johnny Rebler.

our noses to take notice of the blooming. Lawns are greening up nicely as well... before you know it we'll be complaining about the heat.

Here what's happening in our little piece of the county:

The Ben Carter Award in Boy Scouting

There for a while, I hadn't heard of too much going on with the boy scouts who are normally very active in our neighborhood, but they are

Although it's a bit in the future yet... you can mark your calendars now...on Saturday, April 17, the ladies of Pecan Grove Women's Club are planning something new!

One of their projects is to raise funds for local Charities of Fort Bend. This year they are planning to have a Home Tour in Pecan Grove.

There will be five homes to view in the area and they are all unique. The tour will be one afternoon only, from 1 p.m. to

If you are interested in purchasing a non-refundable ticket for only $10, please e-mail us at prograd10@rocketmail.com or contact a ProGrad committee member.

They welcome you to stop by and take advantage of their services as you help them raise money for a very good cause.

Hope you enjoy your week. If you have any news, I hope to hear from you soon with more of what's going on.
