

Andrew and Brandon Walquist earn the Eagle Scout rank.

WALQUIST TWINS HONORED AT EAGLE SCOUT COURT OF HONOR

Twin brothers Andrew and Brandon Walquist with Boy Scout Troop 1656 were honored in a special Eagle Scout Court of Honor ceremony. Chase Adams was the master of ceremonies. The court opened with a welcome and prayer by Al Williams. Russell Harrison led the presentation and retirement of colors. The Color Guard consisted of Bradley Cox, Clayton Coyle, Robert Garza and Taran Garza. Richard Harrison, former Scoutmaster, led the Scout Law Candle Lighting Ceremony with the help of Christopher Byrd. Asst. Scoutmaster Roland Garza followed with "The Trail to Eagle" assisted by Reid Williams. Darrin Hammons presented congratulation letters from numerous dignitaries. Gus Evans then spoke of her memories of Andrew and Brandon over the years. Chris Adams, current Scoutmaster, read "I Am the Eagle" and Curt Johnson, former Scoutmaster, presented the "Eagle Challenge and Charge." The Benediction was given by Al Williams and was followed by a reception.

Brandon's Eagle Scout project consisted of coordinating and managing the planting of a unique variety of trees at Joy Lutheran Church and installing an irrigation system. Andrew enhanced the current landscaping and beautified an area for the Administration Building at First United Methodist Church in Rosenberg.
